Fraud or Withdraw.

After being duly notified that JOHN C. HAINES were signed the Naturalization Petition presented in the columns of the Times, the editors of that sheet persist in publishing the falsehood. As often as they republish it, we brand them with wilful, malicious forgery; and as often as they repeat the charge, we pronounce them doubly libellers.

A Forger.

The editor of the Times sent to the Clerk of the House of Representatives for a copy of the Naturalization petition, signed by sundry persons twenty years ago, which he has received. The name of JOHN C. HAINES is not on it; there is the signature of a J. C. HAINES, which is forged yet there by JOHN C. HAINES. In the face of this proof in his personal possession, the editor of that sheet omits the name as he reads it in the petition, and forges the name of JOHN C. HAINES, which he substitutes. How much is forgery less criminal than theft or arson?

Buchanan Paper.

A newly converted and vigorously smoked Buchanan man tells us that arrangements are now being made to commence the publication of a National Democratic paper in this city, under the auspices of a Buchanan Club. The ranks are loaded with letters, and the wires with messages from Washington to the faithful, commanding them to be up and doing. As early as Monday, perhaps, the first issue of the organ may be expected. Cost, with his commission in his pocket, is expected to be here soon; and then the war will begin. We are not at liberty to name the editor of the forthcoming sheet.

Another Row.

An execution for $500 went into the office of the National Democrat (Gurnee & R.) yesterday, which came near knocking the whole concern into pi. SCRANE, the editor, and DYCKMAN, principal proprietor, are both in Washington dancing attendance upon the President, and of course could do nothing to put the Sheriff out. The matter was brought to the notice of Dr BRAINARD, and he agreed to contribute to its relief, but not to advance the whole amount. This he did, because the Democrat translates all of Cook's lies, not for any good will that he has for DYCKMAN, who is coming out for BUCHANAN. "We are all Democrats!"

Sweet as the Times.

It is said that the news of the appointment of GRAY to the Chicago Post Office, fell upon the Times like a ball of chain lightning. The office of that journal has been long and bitter personal and political quarrel with Mr. GRAY, and her until now supposed that he had the under his belt. The sudden and wholly unexpected change of positions was comparable to nothing less than the crack of doom. Rows were both comes home, decked with and almost choked in spite of DOUGLAS and the Times both. we fear that the reason of our subscribers will better, if indeed he does not go mad, but we exhort him to patience. He has not begun to taste the bitterness of the cup that the President puts to his lips—the dregs are to come!

Another Move in the Fraud.

The Democratic members of the New York Legislature met in caucus on Monday evening last, and, by an unanimous vote, adopted resolutions urging the speedy admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution.

Hon. LEMUEL STEVENS (Rep.) has been appointed, by the New York Legislature, Regent of the University, in place of Hon. JOHN KEYES resigned.

MRS. DOUGLAS.—The illness of Mrs. Douglas has excited much sympathy. Her invitations were out for a grand entertainment on Saturday evening, and on receiving the news was closed. Her disease, we are sorry to say, was no exaggerated in public meetings,—repeats, denies, and for the purpose of misleading—the fable (we cannot bear using a harsher word) that this Advertiser is Mr. HAINES' representative in the canvass. Dr. BRAINARD knows that this man Cook is a brazen liar—knows that he lies for pay—that when he puts his hand in his pocket he jingles money that he has received from Democrats for inventing and disseminating the lies that we charge upon him. How, with all this patent to Dr. BRAINARD, can he still claim to be entitled to the consideration and courtesy due to a gentleman, when he demands to look falsification, and make Mr. HAINES responsible for COOK's lying utterances! Is it legitimate and proper to make the most of an opponent's political record. Dr. BRAINARD says more: His money, in part, has hired a man to manufacture opinions for our candidate. Those opinions the Doctor, upon the authority of a forger in Democratic pay, charges home upon Mr. HAINES as those which he entertains. We admit that, in this piece of infamy, Mr. HAINES is but little less disreputable than the dirty puppy, COOK himself.

The Same Injustice and the Same Committee.

We have had occasion to call to a statement in the Chicago Democrat of the 17th inst., charging the Republican members of the Committee of Elections with gross injustice in the case of the contested Senate seat from Cook.

We have now to say that the said statements, if intended to apply to utterly false and unfounded. It has fallen to our lot to examine the testimony in this case, and a correct report of his political opponent, Mr. BRAINARD knows that this charge is false. He knows it better! He knows that the dishonest and disreputable tool who manufactured that sheet is a hired libeller of others that he does not set a type in his office, that he does not his press, or manufacture a line of his matter, that is not paid for in part by his (BRAINARD's) own money. Dr. BRAINARD knows that the concern applied to him for money, and heard the application upon the ground that it could, under him and the cloak of material service in the contest for Senator, enhance the more valuable, because it came from a professed political opponent. Will Dr. BRAINARD deny that this application was made? We put the question to him—not to the Times or National Democrat, for he pulls their, Cook—but to Dr. BRAINARD himself. Will he dare deny it? If not, how can he still claim to be a man of integrity, or of common veracity, when he repeats, as he has done in public meetings,—repeats, deliberately and for the purpose of misleading—the fable (he cannot bear using a harsher word) that this Advertiser is Mr. HAINES' representative in the canvass.

Democratic Ratification Meeting at Light Guard Hall.

Speeches, Eights, Endorsements, Mastiving Views, etc., etc.

Pursuant to a staring announcement which has occupied a conspicuous place in the "Times" for some days, the fraternal Democracy met last evening in Light Guard Hall, to ratify the nomination of Dr. Brainard for Mayor, and for the transaction of any incidental business that might properly come before the meeting. The proceedings were quite the old style of thing; the nominations were ratified all around; and, as will be seen, the incidentals took up a good share of attention.

Wm. B. Sawyhook, Esq., was called to the chair and introduced Mr. S. S. Hayes, defeated candidate for Mayor, to the meeting.

Mr. Hayes spoke about one hour and got off rather more common-places than usual for that impetuous and irresistable orator. He complained that the Republicans of Chicago had "no leading Democratic ideas," and accused the present administration of levying black mail on somebody—doubtless referring to Hall Pegs. He opined, also, that taxes should be assessed according to law, and expended for the benefit of everybody. On the subject of National politics, he made the broad declaration that "all the candidates on the Democratic ticket were Douglas men"; and nothing shorter.

Mr. Hayes was succeeded by Andrew Harvie, Esq., and Mr. Harris by Evart Van Buren, Esq., and Mr. Van Buren by F. J. Nelson, Esq. Each of the speakers talked against time to prevent the injection of any Buchanan harangues into the programme—it being understood that Shibley was somewhere around surcharged with a tremendous Phillipic. Nelson got through about ten o'clock, and the stand was taken by Dr. Brainard, who went into a dreary exposition of city finances, charging the present administration with unheard profligacy and accusing them of denying the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department a salary of $1,200, when it was well known that he ought to have a horse to ride to fires. From this the Democratic candidate for Mayor proceeded to rip up the doings of the Board of Water Commissioners, and gave a glowing dissertation on three-inch fire plugs. Tuls was supposed to be a lick at Mr. Haines.

The next man on the carpet was Tom Hoyne. Mr. H. was in a fearful state of excitement. He commenced by calling the present Mayor of Chicago a "d—d scoundrel," which he had stirred up the late District Attorney wished to be the assertion that he (Hoyne) was about to endorse Lecompton. He wasn't going to do any such thing. He then read an extract from a Republican paper in the city, and compared its editor to a louse. [Tremendous applause.] Finally he endorsed Douglas and Buchanan both in a very emphatic style of rhetoric, and pronounced them both good Democrats.

At this point a noise occurred near the door which sounded to be yet down under the head of "extra." One man was heard to call another a "!—d puppy," and the next instant the fist of Postmaster Price came in collision with the left eye-lid or some adjoining precinct on Mail Agent Hayward, and a ruckus ensued on regular Democratic principles. It was now about 11 o'clock and the crowd had dwindled to some 150. A rush was made for the combatants and for a few minutes the ratification seemed likely to be hustled down stairs, however, and after a little loud explanation of the premises, the ratifiers dispersed without the formality of an adjournment.

ARREST OF AN ALLEGED COUNTERFEITER.—$2,000 IN BAD MONEY FOUND ON HIM.—A man named E. Bennett was arrested Tuesday night, charged with being a counterfeiter. He was apprehended on information furnished the officers by a locksmith, to whom he had gone to get his trunk-lock mended. In his trunk were found $1,000 in unsigned bills on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, Memphis, Tennessee, and $1,000 of the same kind on his person. These were also found an account of sales of money at Memphis, St. Louis, Grand Rapids and other places, and also a table of rates at which it was selling, and daguerreotypes of several of the most infamous women in this city. These bills are easily manufactured over and filled out, and are sold at from 15 to 20 cents on the dollar. He was examined yesterday and held to bail in $1,000 for further examination.

EDITORS TRIBUNE:—Please allow me to correct a little mistake of yours in your statement about the Greenebaum Scandinavian meeting in the Sixth Ward. You mentioned that Prendergast, O'Malley and Ford were called on to address the audience. This was true in regard to the two Irish Justices of the Peace, but none ever mentioned Mr. Ford. As to the meeting itself, it proved an entire failure. Pursuant to notice given in handbills posted up in several places on the West and North Side, in which was announced that Scandinavian speakers were to address their countrymen in the Norwegian, Danish and Swedish tongues the Scandinavians proved it by hundreds, but to our disappointment only heard Alderman Greenebaum's windy and exceedingly tiresome harangue, expounding the beauties of Democracy, and why he was a Democrat, &c., which being very tedious to the audience, several persons began to call for Mr. Paulson. This aroused the ire and indignation of the Alderman, who now began to bester upon the Scandinavians some very gentlemanly epithets, such as jackasses, rowdies, &c. The audience knowing that they could not expect anything better from the friend and associate of La Hue and his confederates, took it from whence it came; but Mr. M. Paulson, who was called for, did not think proper to appear, and ran down stairs, his national pride having evidently been wounded by Greenebaum's genteel expressions of his countrymen. Mr. Bjerkin, a Swede, for some years a distributing clerk in the Post Office under P. Cook, but was discharged by Mr. Price, who cannot bear the sight of a Scandinavian in the Post Office, on account of their Black Republican proclivities, was called for next, but not wishing to speak alongside the little Jewish orator, he suddenly made his exit. Having only one Scandinavian Democrat left in the hall, namely Stephen Lawson, he was then called for and mounted the rostrum accordingly. His introductory remarks consisted in abusing his countrymen, and denouncing them in general for having interrupted and not listening to the harangue of Alderman of the Ninth, with as much politeness as decorum as he deserved. He next extolled the eloquence and patriotism manifested both of Mr. Greenebaum and H. Greenebaum, whom he had known for many years, and knew they were well worthy to fill any offices in Chicago. He told us also that Mr. Greenebaum had once stated this when desperately ill, which we did not doubt, knowing they were both of the 8th Stocking Democracy. He also did not omit lecturing the audience that both of the honorable gentlemen were excellent friends of his, which, of course, ought to have some weight with the Scandinavians. After a few more remarks of the same kind, during which the audience was remarkably silent, showing himself a real Democrat of the Six Stocking class, he bowed to the audience and retired. There being no more Scandinavian Democrats to speak, the two Democratic gentlemen thought it proper to adjourn, and Greenebaum invited all Democrats to go down stairs and drink two barrels of lager beer, ready for use in the saloon. The meeting broke up with three tremendous cheers for "Little John" and the Republican party, and three groans for Slave Democracy.

A SCANDINAVIAN.

GREENEBAUM'S ATTEMPT TO HUMBUG THE SCANDINAVIANS.—Editors Tribune:—The Scandinavians had altogether a funny time in the Sixth Ward on Tuesday evening. It had been announced that a Scandinavian Democratic meeting would be held in Bondecker's Hall, on Hubbard street, where addresses would be delivered in English and in their native language. At an early hour the hall was filled with Republicans, of course, for, all told, there are but five-and-a-half of the black Democracy among them and all were in the best humor, calling loudly, now on one, and now on another of Democratic Scandinavians for a speech, when unexpectedly Alderman Greenebaum appeared on the platform and commenced a harangue; but he had not proceeded far when three tremendous cheers were given for the Republican party, at which the speaker seemed very much displeased. "Order! gentlemen, order!" cried some one. The speaker said something about going through about ten o'clock, and the stand was taken by Dr. Brainard, who went into a dreary exposition of city finances, charging the present administration with unheard profligacy and accusing them of denying the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department a salary of $1,200, when it was well known that he ought to have a horse to ride to fires. From this the Democratic candidate for Mayor proceeded to rip up the doings of the Board of Water Commissioners, and gave a glowing dissertation on three-inch fire plugs. Tuls was supposed to be a lick at Mr. Haines.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

"Off With His Head.?"

"The President has removed Mr. Price, Post Master at Chicago, and re-appointed Mr. Cook."—Telegraph.

We have been expecting this melancholy decapitation. Mr. Price's political neck has been considered in a precarious condition for some time. Indeed, for a month past, he has been observed with a curious eye by the initiated, as a sort of St. Denis walking around the Post Office with his head under his arm. At last he drops, and

"Truth squatted in earth has its spite."

Look out ye small P. M.'s in the interior, all ye little rural dignitaries and obscure deputies, look out! BUCHANAN'S wrath, like Saladin's scimitar, cuts in twain the lightest trifle that floats upon the air. Abjure all DOUGLAS meetings, vociferate against all DOUGLAS resolutions, study the Locompton accent, and cultivate your Buchanan, or off goes your little heads.

There are more obituary notices coming. We think we see, even now, wandering by

"A shadow like an Avenger, with bright hair
Dabbled in blood."

And FAY's neck looks no bigger than "sweet Anna Bullens." "We are all Democrats."

A Reminiscence.

Three men figured conspicuously in the Municipal canvass of 1856, viz: The editor of the Times, a professed Pro-Slavery Democrat; DANENHOWER, editor of the Native Citizen, professedly a Know-Nothing, but a Border Ruffian Democrat in disguise; Grand-pa SHERMAN, brought out by LEMUEL JOHNS, for Mayor. Ball opens: Times's editor calls out "Old SHERMAN is a rascally Know-Nothing secret to proscribe the Dutch and Irish and all other foreigners to the death."

TRIBUNE replies: "That is false. He never belonged to that Order; he is pledged to no such thing; your charge is made for the purpose of humbugging the naturalized citizens."

"Well," replies the Times, "we will leave it to DANENHOWER, he ought to know; he is not a Democrat; he supports your candidate and ticket."

"The Times is right," says D. with a wink of his left eye. "SHERMAN is a good 'Merican; I swore him in; I put the finishing touches to him one night in Harmony Hall, by the light of a dark lantern, and the other candidates on our ticket stood around and helped me—that's so—and pay by Jupiter! if SHERMAN denies it, three thousand tremendous 'Mericans will rise up and sunk him! Let him speak and he dies the death!"

"Ah, ha!" shouts the Times; "Will you dare deny his Know-Nothingism after such testimony? We thought he was one of them; now we know it. Ha! there, Germans, Irishmen, Scandinavians, old countrymen! Arouse! shake the dewdrops from your manes, gird on your armor and prepare to strike for your dearest rights—for your lives, firesides and little ones! The enemy is marching upon you! Look at their grizzly, ferocious chief, FRANK SHERMAN, rushing on to destroy you! Smite, as ye are free men! Rush to the poll en masse! Vote early—and vote often!" and they did.

The result of that election need not be stated.

The conspiracy between the tax-eaters and Know-Nothings succeeded, and the plundered, maltreated public paid dearly for listening to those blood sucking vagabonds.

DANENHOWER, as Grand State High Priest of the Know-Nothings, undertook to defeat Col. BISSELL, and elect the Border-Ruffian State ticket. DICK MORRIS ran as Richardson's cat's-paw for Governor. DANENHOWER perambulated the State. A fellow named LAWRENCE, assisted by old DUNN, edited the Native Citizen in DA's absence, and the expense of running the machinery was defrayed out of Democratic funds. The conspirators failed to beat the Republican State ticket, though they managed to throw away enough opposition votes on FILLMORE to give the Illinois Electors to BUCHANAN. Having accomplished their share of the contract, as far as lay in their power, they knocked the Native Citizen on the head and openly took their places in the Border Ruffian ranks, where they are to-day. DANENHOWER, MORRIS and BOONE are bright and shining lights in the Democratic constellation; and SHERMAN, the victim of the villainous plot we have described, meekly forgave those who spit upon him, and kissed the hands of the ruffians who smote him; deserted the Republicans, who held him up and defended him, and joined the ranks of the African Democracy, where he now stands, with SHERMAN on his right and DANENHOWER on his left, "independent and contented." The "two pluck one" game worked so charmingly two years ago, that the tax eaters are playing it over again. The stool pigeon this time is G. W. I. COOK, one of DANENHOWER's disciples, who plays the part performed by his master when SHERMAN was plucked. The Advertiser is substituted for the Citizen. The part assigned to the Times is the same as before: to make charges against HARRIS, and then to howl. And HARRIS is to take the place of SHERMAN, to be crucified between the two thieves, for the benefit of the lawyers.

The point of difference between the two plots will be in the result. The "Dusty Miller" will not be caught between the upper and nether millstone of this Know-Nothing-Democratic conspiracy. The 2d of March will show that SHERMAN was a foolish knave, and that COOK was a knavish fool.

How Cook got the Post-Office.

It is well known to Mr. Cook's friends that he has been an ardent admirer and cordial supporter of Mr. Buchanan, ever since the quarrel between Mr. Douglas and the President assumed its present shape. He was undoubtedly the choice of a larger majority of the members of the party in Chicago, for Mayor; but his preferences for Mr. Buchanan over Mr. Douglas, caused the silk-stockings in the organization, who had got the control, for the purpose of serving Mr. Douglas more effectually, to set him aside for BRAINARD. His throat was cut in the primary meetings; and the fact that the Times has not dared to publish the votes cast in the various Wards, gives a clue to the method by which he was put out of the way. He went to Washington as a martyr; and the President to testify his approbation of the "foul stuff" his disapproval of the course pursued by Douglas friends of the Times and Post Office clique, will now send him home as his Postmaster.

Mr. Cook's course in Washington is described as very politic and judicious. He displayed talents for diplomacy which quite astonished his most intimate friends. His success in his mission is sufficient proof that he is to be the principal adviser of the Cabinet in whatever concerns removals and appointments in the North-West. As soon as he returns, we have no doubt that he will be ready to listen to overtures from penitents who desire to be again received into the bosom of the Democratic family. We look to see his rooms crowded to overflowing with politicians, as soon as bisarrival is announced. COOK, HOYNE (the tall goes with the kids: FEIL HOYNE, will follow TOM.) Col. CARPENTER, OWEN MCCARTHY, and Dr. CHARLES LAIR will doubtless constitute the jury—with COOK as Foreman—that will sit in judgment upon all the recusant office-holders in this quarter. It is our desire to see the old appointees hold on; and if they will take our advice they will begin to make their peace as soon as possible. In their present attitude, they may not all fall. GEN. FAY is an old Democratic war-horse, of unexceptionable personal character, and it is possible that he may be permitted to retain his place without concessions; but everything depends, in his case, upon OWEN MCCARTHY. If OWEN decides that the General must move his boots, and make room for him, he will go in spite of his respectability, which he will find is no excuse for leaving. We are sort of the opinion that OWEN will not move.

Of one thing we are convinced: from Washington testimony that we are bound to believe: When COOK returns he will cause it to be understood that no man hoping for favors from the Administration will be recognized as a Democrat who votes for BRAINARD and the other Douglas men on the Douglas ticket; and we shall be surprised if the Democrats proper—not the Douglas bolters, but "the Democracy"—do not nominate a ticket of their own as the rallying point of a true-blue Democratic organization. That is manifestly their policy; and as Mr. Buchanan recognizes the propriety of Presidential interference in municipal affairs, that policy would be, no doubt, thankfully approved and sustained by the Cabinet. We do not of course expect that every Buchanan man can or will vote for HAINES; but they may better vote for him than for the BRAINARD Democrat like BRAINARD, who is cursing the President and his party on every street corner, and in every dirty grocery into which he pokes his head. Let us wait and see. Fat in the mouth, let no Republican count work. Three thousand temporary for HAINES is the answer this morning!

"We are all Democrats."

The Chicago Times is not remarkable for being a very amiable sheet. On the contrary, it is of rather an irascible disposition; we may say, cross, petulant and querulous, slightly given to naughty epithets and dissolute names, and at times contains remarks of almost a personal character. It is edifying, therefore, to witness the testy, excitable, explosive little paper in its more subdued and conciliatory moods. It is pleasant to observe how gradually its wrathful editor unbuttons his threatening brow, unclasps his bellicose right hand, sinks that epic voice into the lowest soto, and relaxes, softens, mellows, "simmers down" generally, into a semi-gentleman. Take a single "eloquent extract" from Wednesday's issue: "Now the fact is, there are no Buchanan "nor Douglas men in Illinois; we are all Democrats"! Isn't that refreshing? Isn't it harmonious? How brotherly it reads: "We are all Democrats"! What a sweet outburst of plebeian simplicity! Evidently the Times editor has thrown away his old, stiff, spiteful steel pen, pone handle and all, and taken up his gentle gray goose quill, with its soft, amiable nib, and downy, affectionate feather!

DOUGLAS is snubbed in the Senate, cashiered in the caucus, and drummed out of the party by the BUCHANAN Senators, for opposing the Administration. Major HARRIS is branded as a renegade by the Executive organ for the same reason. PRICE's head is lopped off and rolled in the sawdust for attending DOUGLAS meetings, and COOK re-appointed for swearing Anti-DOUGLAS oaths. The Times itself is deprived of all public patronage, for supporting that Session, and other papers fattened on it for abusing him; yet this forgiving, kind-hearted, fraternal paper, exclaims in the fullness of its love, "There are no Buchanan or Douglas men; we are all Democrats!" Exemplary and charitable sheet! We know of no more edifying instance of Christian humility and meekness. How quietly he turns unto him the left cheek! "We are all Democrats."

Exposés of Galena.

The Galena Advertiser publishes a statement made by DANIEL WARD, Esq., Collector of the Port, in which the exports of 1857 are valued at $2,126,676, of which the sum of $801,224 was in lead. There is a falling off in this item; but next year's returns will show a large increase, for the reason that the stringency of the times has sent hundreds of men to mining and other productive pursuits, who have heretofore been engrossed in speculation or some of its collateralsh. Galena is one of the most substantially prosperous and wealthy towns in the Northwest.

Specie Bank.

[For the Chicago Daily Tribune.]

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I have taken considerable interest in the discussion of the currency question, specie bank, &c., in your columns and those of the Democratic Press, and have been particularly pleased to see the effort of your well-directed blows upon the very temporary entanglements that the Press has thrown up to defend its positions. This effort was very strong and well done. The evidences of its destruction manifest like the prodigal son's. The Press certainly wields a pat ax to cut down its positions.

The Press says the bankers are all in favor of a specie basis. If your inquisitions are correct as to the origin of many of the money articles of the Press, under commercial heads and over "Cashier," I would like to verify if Cashier's" statements from practice, and prove that one, at least, of the wild cat bankers is in favor of a specie basis. We can all of us, probably recollect that there was a time in the dim distance of the past when our money here was discounted under the polite name of exchange at ten per cent. Well, it came to pass in those days that one of our worthy Germans, who earns his money by hard labor, at the rate of one dollar per day, had a note on a land contract due to one of these bankers. True to his instinct of punctuality, to presented his money and demanded his note on the day it was due. "Well, Hans," says the discriminating banker, "that is not money; I must have the gold." Hans thought it rather singular, inasmuch as he had taken it for money, and some of it had the banker's own signature to it; but the specie basis was clearly obtainable on Hans' note, but on the banker's note currency was the standard. The graceful signature of the one probably made the difference of ten per cent. in favor of the banker's.

That, Messrs. Editors, is the way these wild-cat bankers favor a specie basis. This honest German had to sell the banker's notes at ten per cent. discount, to get the gold to pay his own with, though both are passed in this goodly city. The bankers longthe strong arm of the law to enforce a specie basis in individual cases which they have ruthlessly disregarded in all their multifarious transactions. Such men cannot be properly convicted, except by the same power—the strong arm of the law, with a strong public sentiment to execute its behests. We must not be deceived in reference to our opponents in this move. Their disposition is apparent;—the only question is, have they the power to crush the mercantile interest? If they have not, then an easy conquest awaits the faithful in a cause that is worthy of their steel. We are for a reasonable and satisfactory arrangement among all our banks—knowing that union forms the strongest bulwarks and insures success. But if we cannot have concert of action in a war for principles, we can console ourselves that eventually the right must prevail, and we can wait for the "good time coming," knowing that it will surely come despite the opposition that may be marshaled against it.

Let us give you a problem: If "Cashier" is not willing to lend his influence to inaugurate a specie basis when exchange is three per cent., and thus be the instrument of oppression to country banks, as he argues, why does he force HAYS into a specie basis in paying his note, when exchange is ten per cent? And why has he made the business public the subjects of his oppression, who are his customers and the source of his profits, instead of a few reckless bankers, who are the cause of most of our financial troubles? Solve it who will—we want a candid answer. LYCEUM.

A KING FOR CANADA.—The Sandwich (C. W.) Mercury is advocating the erection of Canada into a separate Kingdom. The Mercury thinks the most eligible person to rule over the new kingdom would be a Prince of England; while his elevation to the throne of the new kingdom "would be a graceful tribute of loyalty to the Queen. It would remove the disadvantages under which we at present labor, and would bind us more firmly as an entirely independent nation to the first empire in the world. The sympathies of the British people would follow him to his new home, and the warm hearts of a young and vigorous nation would cling to him as a brother in founding an empire which may yet spread its banner over a continent."

SUPPRESSION OF SMALL NOTES.—A bill is now before the New Jersey Legislature which provides for the suppression of one dollar notes after the 1st July next, of two dollar notes after the 1st January next, and of notes under the denomination of five dollars after July 1, 1859.

EDWARD WILLIAM JOHNSON, formerly editor of the Cincinnati Columbian, an intensely Know Nothing sheet, is now editor of the St. Louis Leader, the Democratic Border Ruffian organ in that city. So they go.

FROM KANSAS.

Excitement at Doniphan—Letter from the Legislature.

LECOMPTON, K. T., Feb. 11th, 1858.

Quite an exciting affair occurred at Doniphan on Sunday last. By the arrival of Gen. Lane in town we learn the particulars. It will be remembered that a few weeks since a Free Stater man named Walter Latham was shot down in the streets of that city, by a party of ruffians from Atchison. Much feeling has existed upon this occurrence. Mr. Latham was a man universally respected, and efforts have since been made to arrest the murderers and their accomplices.

On Sunday last, positive information having been received of the complicity of certain prominent Pro-Slavery men, a large meeting assembled at the Hotel, and the following resolutions were introduced and passed:

Resolved, That we, the citizens of Doniphan assembled, pledge ourselves to each other to discountenance such conduct, and to defend at all hazards the persons and property of our fellow citizens without reference to their political opinions.

Resolved, That we think it perfectly understood, however, that the murderers of John Collins and the accessories to the more recent murder of our fellow townsman, Henry Latham, Esq., are not included in the above pledge of protection. Murderers and their abettors can look for no sympathizers in Doniphan.

An affidavit was read from the brother of the murdered man charging "that Dr. J. L. Davis, John B. Boyd, and Robert S. Kelly were accessories before the fact to the murder of his said brother. That he does believe, and upon his oath states, that the three persons above named were accessories to the crime above recited."

After the affidavit was read a motion was made to proceed to the houses of the parties named, in order to arrest them. The men, however, fled on the approach of the people. They were pursued and fired upon, but escaped. Their buildings were burnt down by the excited populace. The people of Doniphan are determined to bring these men to justice, even if they have to take Judge Lynch for their accomplice.

TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE.

Both branches of the Legislature are busily engaged in finishing up their business, prior to adjournment on Friday next. This morning a memorial was introduced, signed by 230 Pro-Slavery men, asking this Legislature to examine the report of Gen. Strickland, and forward to Congress the claim of the parties who united an act of the last bogus Legislature ondited their claims for damages caused by the troubles.

The memorial was rather insulting in its tone, speaking of rebellion and outrage, and indirectly alluding to the Free State men as the cause of it. Mr. Bassett moved that the thing be laid on the table. After some discussion the motion prevailed.

The bill which was passed so enthusiastically on Monday last by the House, making it felony, punishable with death to attempt to put the Lecompton Government into motion, was killed by the Council—and a set of mills and water resolutions introduced in their place.

However, the people will take care of all parties who attempt to put this Lecompton government in operation. "A short strife and a bloody one" will be the doom of all who should attempt to put this swindle into motion. The President's Message is looked upon here as a declaration of war. The military Board are now in session and the thorough organization of the militia will be perfected as speedily as possible.

R. J. H.

Impeachment of the President.

[From the N. Y. Evening Post.]

The shameless and infatuated efforts of the President to impose a minority rule upon the people of Kansas, have already produced a feeling in Congress which promises to result in a degradation of the Presidential office, thus far unprecedented in the history of the Republic. It is freely alleged at Washington that Executive influence has been corruptly used to secure votes in the House of Representatives for the Lecompton Constitution. The justice of these suspicions is grounded not only upon the undercurrent of conversation in Washington circles, but upon the general administration of the Administration party, the other day in voting against Mr. Hoard's proposal for an investigation, that the facts he sought to expose, would not bear the light. The only ground taken for resisting the motion was that its author would not himself make specific charges of corruption, the specific charges of newspaper correspondents not furnishing a necessary element for such an inquiry as a question of privilege. The fate of Mr. Hoard's proposal, therefore, seems to have been unexpected, and to have inflamed the feeling which already existed against the President. There is now a strong conviction that Mr. Buchanan has laid himself open to an impeachment, and some of the most prudent and far sighted men in Washington are seriously considering the propriety of making an example of him. Should he persist in his policy, and in using the patronage of the Government to carry his measure, going it, we should not be surprised to hear of a motion for his impeachment being moved, any day. It will not pass, of course, for when a majority of Congress is obliged, for the sake of its own reputation with the country, to resist an exposure of its alleged corruption among its own members, it is not in a condition to make an example of the alleged corruptor.

Whether impeached or not, however, there is something mortifying, not to say alarming, in the mere fact that a President, in the first quarter of his administration, should so indiscreetly—we will not say corruptly—exert the influence of his office as to compel his political opponents to look for an impeachment as the only available means of preventing our government degenerating into an oligarchical despotism.

Jim Steedman Working the Wires.

[From the Cleveland Herald of Monday.]

The telegraph wires have been humming with messages from Washington for a day or two, asking questions of the faithful in this city.

Jim Steedman who went Douglas until approaching the jumping off place, and who then said "he'd be d——d if he'd sacrifice himself," seems to have hold of the battery at Washington. We have it from authority which we rely upon, that a message came from Steedman to George C. Dodge, asking these questions:

Are you a Buchanan man?

Are you in favor of Lecompton?

Do you want the Post Office?

Will you, in connection with said office, establish a newspaper?

To the first two questions Dodge answered, "I am." To the third he said, "I do;" but to the fourth he demurred, as the scheme was of doubtful expediency in a pecuniary point of view.

Charles Winslow, too, has been catechised. He replied that he was a Buchanan man, and a Lecompton man, and would like the Post Office. The newspaper question was not put to him.

So it seems "things are working."

Who Lose the Twenty-five per Cent.

The present disordered state of monetary affairs renders it necessary, in order to pay debts, or effect purchases of new stocks of goods, outside the city limits, that 25 per cent. be paid to convert the currency which circulates here, into currency, gold or exchange on the East, or even on Chicago. It is evident that somebody is the loser of this heavy percentage; and the question which now arises is, who stands this shave? or, in other words, who pays this unwilling tribute to the issuers of this currency? The buyer or the consumer? Having paid considerable attention to this matter, we have arrived at the conclusion that the load is imposed upon both consumer and dealer—each has a portion of this heavy burden saddled upon them—each are staggering beneath the weight of the daily increasing load. The day laborer who toils from morning till night, and receives payment therefor in a dollar of shinplaster, is obliged to stand a shave of from 15 to 20 per cent. before he can convert his hard-earned dollar into provisions; the farmer, the mechanic—all who purchase goods with our local currency, are subjected to this direct taxation of at least 15 per cent., and the merchant who pays 70 and 75 per cent. for exchange, stands the balance.

Such is the true state of affairs. It is grinding the face of the poor; taking from the laborer nearly one-fifth of his hard earned money; distressing the widow and the fatherless; stealing from the poor a large portion of that scanty pittance which serves only as a slight barrier between them and starvation. More—it is snatching bread from the very mouths of the hungry and placing it before the issuers of wild-cat rags. Who is accountable for this? Not the suffering poor; not they whom want compels to labor for their daily bread. No! no!

And the merchant—the man who has purchased his stock of goods and has come here to do an honest business—not to set up a broker's establishment—how can he afford to pay such enormous rates for exchange? It cannot be done and succeed. He therefore in self-defence is obliged to raise the prices of his goods so that the purchaser will bear two-thirds of the per cent. which he is obliged to pay in order to sustain his character and business reputation.

Another feature which operates powerfully against our interests as a mercantile community is the fact that at Muscatine, only thirty-five miles distant, exchange on New York is worth only two or three per cent., and all kinds of goods are sold some fifteen or twenty per cent. lower than here, and this alone detracts from our city an immense trade from Muscatine and Cedar counties, for farmers who have pork or wheat to sell will carry it there, and get for it good funds—such as will take them out of town, long on their heads, or perhaps in their wagons.

There are sinisters facts—facts which we would not mention, were it not our imperative duty to do so—facts which are not only to be considered but remedied in such a manner as they deserve. We hold the interests of the community at heart; we must not bind the eyes of the people as to the true condition. The loss of twenty-five per cent. is diverting the trade of Dubuque, to Muscatine, to Clinton and Lyons, and the sooner the remedy is applied to purge away the cause of our decline, the better. Beware! Act in time.—Davenport (Iowa) Democrat, 16th.

The Bridge Across Niagara River.

The proposed bridge across the Niagara River at Buffalo is designed by that distinguished engineer A. M. ROSE, who has long been indissolubly connected with the history of the bridges in the New World. The power in the construction of this great tubular iron bridge, the Victoria, which is to link together, at Montreal, twenty thousand miles of railway, which is to take the crowd from the Lovinthian's cloak and scatter them throughout the fields and houses of that fair share of our best lands which yet belongs to the crown.

The bridge at Buffalo is to be thirty-six hundred feet in length, not that the width of the river requires this, but the approaches to the high ground, especially on the Canada side of the river, require one-half of this length. The longest approach is on the Canadian side, extending to 1,300 feet. The river itself is to be spanned by five openings of about 270 feet each.

On the Canadian side the approaches are composed of arches of masonry forming a viaduct which from its great height, sixty feet, will be a striking addition to the many wonders that cluster around the Niagara.

The railway is to be placed on the lower chord of the superstructure, and while the cars are to move over this, twenty-two feet above them are the carriage way and footman platforms, so that there will be great facility in the approach to it.

The cost of this bridge is estimated at two millions five hundred thousand dollars, and this estimate is formed by those whose experience in engineering has been very extensive.

The top and bottom flotes being 24 feet in width and of solid iron throughout, will be connected by vertical pillars of iron at distances of about 20 feet, and to be strengthened by means of diagonal braces, so as to resemble a rigid beam, the depth of which will be 18 feet, leaving ample room for a train to pass through.

The upper carriage road is 9 feet, and the latter 6 feet, with substantial iron railings.

The whole structure to be illuminated with gas, and large red reflectors to mark the openings of the draws.

Such are some of the details of a work which if Buffalo desires to build, can and will be built, for it the people of Buffalo make a guaranty, capitalists in England will believe them, and for a structure so useful, advance the cost.

The navigation is provided for by means of capacious draw or swing bridges, one over the harbor on the American side, resting upon a middle pillow of masonry. A simple piece of machinery carries the bridge to it revolve, leaving draws of eighty feet. Similar provision is made in the river and on the Canadian side.

There are to be put four piers in the river, supporting the wrought iron superstructure on the lower chord of which the railway is placed.

The structure will resemble the Victoria Bridge at Montreal, excepting that the sides of the tube will be open instead of solid.

STEAMBOATS TO CHICAGO, GREEN BAY AND LAKE SUPERIOR.—A meeting of our citizens was held in the Firemen's Hall, on Monday last to consider what aid Collingwood was willing to afford towards securing a tri-weekly line of steamers, besides a sufficient number of propellers, to meet the demand of the western trade by this route. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Cumberland, one of the directors, and Mr. Grant, the Superintendent of the Northern Railway. Mr. Cumberland in the course of his remarks, said he hoped to see Collingwood rise to a great city, and, if $5,000 could be guaranteed, the boats would be agreed at once, and he thought would be continued without any future aid. Mr. Grant said the boats could not be secured this year for a smaller sum than $15,000 but if Collingwood would contribute $5,000, the balance could be obtained in Toronto, and he felt satisfied that next year it would settle the route, and that no bonus would be required in future. The boats he expected to be placed on the line were the Planet, Illinois, and Lady Elgin, to form a tri-weekly line to Chicago, to be followed, if necessary, by the Arctic, Cleveland, and Queen City, to connect at Mackinaw with Green Bay and Lake Superior. The meeting then resolved to make application to our Town Council for $4,000, and appointed a committee to draw up a petition to be presented to-day. On Tuesday it was circulated in town, from the best canvassers in the country, to which he would invite the attention of his friends as well the press.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—James Edmund Shandorough, a young farmer living near Cairo, Pulaski county, came off second in a shooting affray with Dr. Hall, on Wednesday, the 3d inst. The cause of the rash act was pecuniary embarrassment.

DUELLING.—A protracted meeting is going on at Clinton, Piatt county, under the superintendence of Rev. Mr. Gilbert, a Methodist minister, assisted by Rev. J. Q. Knight, of the Liverpool mission.

DANGEROUS AFFRAY.—Two Germans, Babe and Albright, quarrelled at Belleville, last Monday, about the former setting his dog on the legs of the latter. Albright drew a knife on Babe, when the latter struck him with a fence rail. The parties then separated, and got their guns. Babe, with his gun, came to the house of Albright, and shot him down in his porch. Babe was arrested.

A SAD AFFAIR.—In Bolfast, Ill., on the 17th ult., Mr. Elijah Young was cutting wood at his own door, when his little son put his hand upon the log, and the axe came down, stopping it off. The lad was carried into the house of his grandfather, Moses Young, when the appearance of the poor fellow so excited his grandmother, that she took to her bed and died the next morning.

HORSE THIEVES.—Horse thieves infest Macoupin county. Several valuable animals have recently been stolen. Other counties in Southern Illinois are infested by the same species of rogues. It is thought the extensive gang that has been recently broken up by the "Regulators" in Indiana, extends into Illinois.

HAZEL GREEN DISCOVERY.—We learn from the Galena "Courier," that Messrs. Lumkey and Simmons, last Friday, made a valuable discovery at Hazel Green, on land owned by J. Crawford, Esq. Up to 2 o'clock Saturday they had taken out upwards of ten thousand pounds of mineral. The above party owns but one-half the above. Messrs. Chamberlain and Prentiss having purchased the other half the day before it was struck.

EXPORTS FROM GALENA.—We find the interesting "Statement of the quantity and estimated value of articles of manufacture of domestic growth or manufacture exported from Galena, Illinois, in the year ending December 31, 1857, compiled by Daniel Wann, Surveyor of Customs," in the Courier of Tuesday morning. It will be seen, that those Exports last year amounted to the encouraging sum of $2,126,676 66.

There is an article selling throughout the country that has attained the unparalleled popularity now known as a remedy for Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and Indigestion, since Dr. Sanford's introduction of Liver Invigorator. It has performed cures almost too great to believe, were it not for the unquestionable proofs and testimony on the testimonials. Its power to cure the most distressing forms of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, or a general debility that so often baffles the skill of our most eminent physicians.

Dr. Sanford has been for a long time one of the eminent physicians of New York, and it is said most of the cures were treated with the Invigorator with such invariable success that he has been induced to offer it as a family medicine, that in truth, it has proved the blessing of his discovery. If those who are troubled with debility, head-ache, sour stomach, or blue, lingering fever, will try a bottle, we think they might save physicians' bills, and days, perhaps years of suffering. (See advertisement.) 8dc18

There is no Hostetter's Stomach Bitters correct the appetite, imparts a tone to the system, forces off the torpid, all impure secretions, regulates the bowels, gives an strength of body and vigor of mind. For Dyspepsia in its opposite symptoms, they are the wonder of the afflicted. In all cases of faintness, dizziness, prostration, great fatigue and a general inability, it is surprising how soon the patient is relieved. No family can afford to be without Hostetter's Bitters. They relieve no extra. Sold in bottles by Druggists and dealers generally.

$1,000 Reward.—Having purchased of Dr. Tilton (son-in-law of Dr. James) the only recipe which Dr. James uses in preparing the Extract of Canadian Indian, for the cure of Consumption, Asthma, Colds, Coughs and General Debility, and having greatly improved the same by incorporating with it other potent vegetable drugs, especially such as will furnish a tonic to remedy the debility and cure in all those difficulties, as well as to cause a Bronchial relief, I now offer the above reward to any one who will show me a case that cannot be cured by the preparation now made at No. 151 State street, Chicago, in a more speedy and permanent manner than by the old recipe. I have put on hand. DR. O. S. GILBERT.

N. B.—Dr. James is fully entitled that such is the case, and hence it is that he is making such a fuss in the papers; but all can satisfy themselves by trying only one bottle, and if it is not what is represented in this bill, the money will be returned; and if that is not sufficient to show it that I am making a better article, I will, when ordered, send with each bottle (free of charge) Dr. James' own recipe, with directions as used by himself.

DR. GILBERT.

To Cure a Cold—A Recipe that Rarely Fails.—Now, while winter, with its heathen of Cold and Coughs, is with us, we think a remedy that will relieve such visitations should be mighty prized. And we know that the worth of this remedy will do as we do—prize it highly. Take a double dose of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and it will give greater relief than any other medicine we ever tried, for we have rarely to repeat the dose to be entirely free from cough, and as to colds or the lungs, have them to throw off the collected matter, the cure is complete. As a family medicine, for the cure of Bowel Diseases, Worms, Derangement of the Stomach and Liver, we can recommend it unknowingly. (See advertisement.)

Artificial Legs.—D. Cowles & Co., Proprietors and Manufacturers of Wilson's Patent Artificial Leg—the best and most perfect Leg ever invented. The only premium ever awarded by the Illinois State Agricultural Society, held at Chicago in the Fall of 1857. Patent granted Sept. 15th, 1856. Manufactory, 194 Lake street, corner of Wells, Room No. 16, Merchants' Exchange. P. O. Box 2469. 6m787-tf

Important to Females!—Dr. Cheesman's Pills. Prepared by Dr. Cheesman, N. D., No. 2 New York City. The combination of ingredients in these pills are the result of a long and extensive practice in their use, whether from acts of debauchery, taudaum, or from the publication of the heart, destroying what some constitutions are subject to. To Married Ladies they are invaluable as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity.

NOTICE.—They should not be used during the pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on miscarriage. Sold by all Druggists. Furnished privately, when desired, by enclosing $1 to the General Agent for the United States, E. S. HUTCHINGS, 76 Courtland street, New York.

For sale in Chicago by FENTON & ROBINSON, 75 Lake st. Wholesale Agents for Chicago.

Doctor Thomson's Grand Anatomical Museum, Surgical and Microscopic Museum, adjoins the office, on the same floor, at 120 Dearborn street, Chicago. The Three models are from Moses Pothorst, (Grand Anatomist) Museum, in Paris, and have been obtained at great expense. Ladies attend exclusively in the Museum every day, from 12 M. to 4 P.M. In the evening, gentlemen only admitted. Admission, 25 cents. Dr. Thomson's patients admitted free of charge. Boys and children never admitted.

Professor Hamblin's Electric Oil.—A supply of this wonderful and celebrated remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Tumors and Sores, thirsting all pains in from three to twenty minutes. For Cramps and Spasms, it has positively no rival. Thousands of testimonials of its remarkable cures all over the land, speak it as the most valuable remedy for the suffering and afflicted. Hours, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, 10 to 12 A.M. Other times, Parlors 3 and 4 Sherman House, Clark street, Chicago. Agents wanted in the Queen's bars. For sale at retail by all Druggists. Try everything else, then get our paper and be relieved.

Lea & Perrins' Worcestershire Sauce. The attention of Hotel Keepers, Proprietors of Eating Houses and the Public generally is called to the fact that the Sauce is counterfeited to a great extent, and that the Genuine Sauce bears the names of Lea & Perrins' Signature on the wrapper, Bottle and Label, and without which none can be genuine. Wholesale and Retail Agents, Crosby, Nelson & Co., and Carpenter & Robinson, Chicago, and the Proprietors, Worcester. This celebrated sauce is now imported in new square bottles, and is pronounced by the most eminent connoisseurs to be the most delicious and wholesome flavor, applicable to soups, fish, hot and cold meats, game, &c., &c., is extensively used in all quarters of the globe.

The numerous "imitations" on both sides of the Atlantic speak loudly of its merits; and the fact that it receiving the only Medal awarded to foreign Sauce at the New York Exhibition attests the estimation in which it is held by those acquainted with general excellence to their ability to judge of the merits of similar articles of table use. And being the most popular Sauce in the market unprincipled parties are offering for sale spurious Sauces by slightly varying the spelling of "Lea & Perrins," the only proprietors of the Genuine Sauce. GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

One Step in the wardrobe of the Princess Royal of England, on her marriage, should attract the attention of American women, and be adopted by them. A part of her "fit out" was twelve pair of boots, which were described as "useful and solid;" some of them intended for "rough walking," are provided with treble soles.

Cashed.—Parties are making preparations to import a large number of camels, for service in Texas. Utah lost the Pilot, and a Scotchman in Texas is arranging an importation and speculation, on the line between Corpus Christi and El Paso. It is said that army supplies can be transported from Texas to Utah by those ships of the desert, twenty per cent cheaper than in the present or in any other way. Their efficiency, both in carrying the mails between the States and California, it is believed, will lead to their employment in that service. The importation of these animals is due to the late Secretary of War, Gen. Davis.

Mr. Ernest at Richmond.—Hon. Edward Everett, having been invited to attend the inauguration of the 32d just., and to deliver there, and there, his noble oration on Washington, the Richmond South makes an ill-natured and snarling attack on him, because he once advised his name to a paper speaking of Brooks' attack on Sumner as "brutal and cowardly." The South goes even to the unmannerly extreme of threatening Mr. Everett and David Paul Brown, the great Philadelphia lawyer, who is to accompany him on the occasion, with indignity from the citizens of Richmond.

The people of Richmond will exhibit worse breeding than we believe characterizes them, if either by positive insult, or lukewarmness of greeting, they make Mr. Everett's visit otherwise than pleasant to him.

Texas Negro Insurrection.—We have seen a late letter from Fayetteville, Arkansas, to a gentleman in this city, which accounts for the negro insurrection story which some amiable gentleman living down there was considerate enough to send us. A gentleman from Independence, Mo., with fifty negroes, reached Washington County, Ark., on his way to a large, which he had bought in the South. While there, the negroes having nothing to do, were allowed to go about the neighborhood as they pleased. A weak-headed old lady, seeing a number of them together, became frightened and made her way to a neighboring settlement with the news that the negroes had "risen," and were on their march towards the settlement. Some alarm was created by this tidings, but no hope served to dispel the apprehensions excited by the old lady's story, and the affair was no more thought of. When we first mentioned the affair, we stated distinctly our doubt of its truth; but some fellow in Chicago tickled the gullible Abolitionists of the North by circulating the story by telegraph, without the doubts we expressed of its truth. What would have spoiled it.—St. Louis Intelligencer.

Food for the Hungry.—Since the commencement of the present cold weather there has been a large increase in the number of applications for free dinners at Mr. John W. Farmer's free dining room, in Ladies' street. On Saturday twelve hundred and forty persons were furnished with good wholesome dinners. Although there are men and women and boys and girls who partake of the food furnished by Mr. Farmer's hospitality, the largest number served are full grown men—mechanics and others, who have been for a long time out of work. A large number of these sailing are regular sailors, and there are fifty families who are in destitute circumstances. A man and his wife walk down from Eighty-third street every day in the week for their dinners. Mr. Farmer is making extra preparation for the coming anniversary of Washington's Birthday. The faint and hungry will be treated to a better dinner than usual. Delicacies, &c., will be served up. This is certainly a way to celebrate the anniversary of the birthday of the Father of his Country worthy of imitation. Mr. Farmer expresses his intention of keeping the saloon open as long as the hard times shall last.—N. Y. Tribune.

Sticking to the Text.—Selden, in his amusing Table-talk, has the following story in illustration of the remark that preachers will sometimes bring anything into the text:

"The young masters of arts preached against non residency in the university; whereupon the heads made an order that no man should meddle with anything but what was in the text. The next day one preached upon these words, 'Abraham begat Isaac.' When he had gone a good way, at last he observed, that Abraham was resident; for if he had been non-resident, he could never have begot Isaac; and so he fell foul upon the non-residents."

This, says the Cincinnati Inquirer, is something like the anecdote of the minister who was almost possessed on the subject of the political controversy, and could never refrain from introducing his opinion on it, no matter what the subject in hand. Once he was set to discourse upon the first verse in the Bible, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." His first remark was, "Yes, my brethren; but it does not say that God created bishops!"

Arkansas Father's Advice to his Son.—The following advice of an Arkansas father to his son eclipses that of Polonius to Laertes. Rich and racy in dialect, it "knocks sanscrip" out of the glowing admonitions of the classic Dane:

Bob, you are about leaving home for strange parts. You're going to throw me out of the game and go it alone. The odds is agin you, Bob, but remember always that industry and perseverance are the winning cards; they are the "bowers." Book larnin' and all that sort of thing will do to fill up with, like so many small trumps, but you must have the bowers to back 'em, or else they ain't worth a thunder. If luck runs against you mighty strong, don't carve in and look like a sick chicken on a rainy day, but hold your head up and make believe you've a flush of trumps; they won't play so hard agin you. I've lived and traveled around some, Bob, and I've found out that as soon as folks tho't you held a weak hand, they'd buck agin you strong. So when you're sorter weak keep cool, a bold front, but play cautious; be satisfied with a pint. Many a hand I've seen snatched from me when played for too much. Keep your eyes well skinned, Bob; don't let a'n "slip" on you; recollect the game lays as much with the head as with the hands. Be temperate; never get drunk, for then, no matter how good your hand, you won't know how to play it; both bowers and the ace won't save you, for there's sartin to be a "miss deal," or something wrong. And another thing, Bob—this you must bear in a low tone—don't go too much on the woman question. Poor cards the more you have of them the worse for you; you might have three and nary a trump. I don't say discard 'em all; if you get hold of one that's a trump, it's all good, and there's sartin to be one out of four. And above all, Bob, be honest; never before a man's trick wot don't belong to you, nor "slip" cards, or "sail" for then you can't look your man in the face, and when that's the case, there's no fun in the game, it's regular "cut throat." So now, Bob, farewell; remember wot I tell you, and you'll be sure to win, and if you don't, sarves you right if you get "skunked."

Manufactures.—A colony of Swiss and German emigrants have purchased a large tract of land adjoining Cannelton, Perry County, Ind., and are building up a manufacturing city. They are now running one cotton mill at full speed with a capital of $300,000.

Cannelton is 160 to 170 miles up the Ohio River. There is another cotton mill established there by New Englanders, among whom is, or was, (when we saw it some years since,) Senator James of Rhode Island. A fine article of coal is to be had from the bluffs immediately back of these mills. For raw cotton they are dependent upon the Ohio—not always to be relied on for purposes of transportation. It may be remembered. No railroad connects with Cannelton. The market for its cotton goods must be found along the Ohio. They command the river towns below C., as eastern cottons cannot compete with them. The additional cost on the transportation on the raw material from New Orleans to eastern factories and then on the manufactured article from the factories in Indiana, gives western goods manufactured in Indiana a great advantage. Cotton mills on the Mississippi, located at points reached by Railroads, and contiguous to large coal beds, would have still greater advantages. They would drive out Massachusetts cottons, in a few years, almost entirely. They could manufacture and sell at lower prices because the freight on the raw material would be only about one-third, and the freight on the manufactured article between Boston and the Mississippi—which we have to pay now on every yard of cotton—could be saved entirely. We ought to move in this matter of cotton manufactures in the Northwest, at the earliest possible day. Three mills, with an aggregate capital of $1,000,000, might profitably be commenced in Davenport immediately.—(Davenport Iowa) Gazette.

Early Spring Chess.—A countryman named Chase, recently from Illinois, entered the Mayor's office with a very long face on Saturday, and complained that he had been cheated out of $150 by certain parties with whom he was induced to deposit that amount to secure him an interest in some imaginary enterprise. Immediately after receiving the money, the parties mysteriously disappeared, and not having any particular location, they were not to be found. Such confidence operators are not numerous in the city, and always Notice.

THE PAST EIGHTEEN MONTHS' EXPERIENCE has given the citizens of Chicago ample proof that the soap question of cleansing gentlemen's clothes will not do, as proposed by those parties who deal with the word "Benzine" in the capacity of this fluid, unless your coats, vests and pants are dyed, cleaned and neatly repaired, as executed in Basle Switzerland, they had far better never be touched at all; but when they are properly taken to experienced workmen, they will look as fresh and as well fitting as the day they were made, at the same time avoiding much to their bodily comfort. Now, gentlemen, all of you who know any thing, know money by this time, is fully convinced that the only true and reliable source of having your coats, vests and pants in a perfect state of repair, and made to look like new, is by COOK & McLAIN'S Chemical process. It costs you but little more money every year, and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that your garments are in a state in which such garments are liable. The spots are warranted not to re-appear, in a beautiful finished manner as good as when first sewed.

Gentlemen, call at COOK & McLAIN'S and look at specimens of their cleansing. If they fail to please you, no charge will be made.
